

Mrs. Harriott will be taking on a new role within the school from September and will be retiring as class teacher with effect from the end of August, having completed her fiftieth year in the classroom. As this development has come very late in the school year, there will not be time to mark it in the appropriate and fitting manner in which we all would like to.

Therefore, at the start of the new term, we will be announcing the date and time for a special mass to properly mark Joanna's dedication and service to the entire school community of St John the Baptist PS.

We will be inviting parents to join us for the special Mass in the church to celebrate as a whole school community.

Mrs Harriott will most certainly not be leaving us and will continue to work directly with children in the capacity as a remedial literacy and numeracy support teacher, ensuring that our children continue to benefit from her expertise and unparalleled dedication and enthusiasm for the teaching vocation.